DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Militar, U.S.P. No. 6,658,187.

Militar 187' teaches (Figs.1-4) a loose tube optical fiber cable comprising: a central strength member 22 made of fiber reinforced plastics (FRP) helically surrounded by a plurality of plastic cable aggregation units 12 forming cable cores(Note there can be three or four units which touch each other) that are filled with optical fibers 42 and also surrounded by inclusions 28 with the plastic cable aggregation cores surrounded by a fibered tension reinforcing member 8 made from aramid yarn (yarn is placed at circumferential angles that include 180 degrees) which is then coated with outer cable coatings 38,10, which clearly, fully meets Applicant's claimed limitations.

A copy of PTO-1449 will be included in this office action.
